Explanatory note on the organization of the action "Under the lace sky", held within the framework of The IV International Lace Festival "Vita Lace"

(Vologda, 17 July 2021)

Organizing Authorities of the action "Under the lace sky" are:

- The Department of Culture and Tourism of the Vologda region;
- The Budgetary Institution of Culture of the Vologda Region "Vologda State Museum-Preserve of History, Architecture and Decorative Arts";
- "Vologda State Museum-Preserve" branch "The Museum of Lace".

The action is scheduled for July 17, 2021 within the framework of the IV International Lace Festival "Vita Lace". The result of the action will be the creation of an art object with lace motifs "Under the lace sky" (to commemorate the 60th anniversary of the first human space flight).

Place of the Action: Vologda, Kremlin Square.

Event Date: July 17, 2021 from 10.30 to 12.30

Short Description:

The aim of the action "Under the lace sky" is to attract attention of guests and participants of the IV International Festival "Vita Lace" to the importance of preserving historical memory and strengthening friendly ties between different nations.

As part of the action "Under the lace sky", an art object of the same name will be shown to the general public. The art object will consist of both pre-made lace motifs (stars) and lace items realized by participants during the action.

The image of a star is chosen as the symbol of the action "Under the lace sky". It is a symbol of high aspirations, dreams and hope, understandable to participants from different countries and regions of Russia. Sixty years ago, took place a historic event, which marked the beginning of the exploration of outer space for the benefit of all humanity. On April 12, 1961, was launched the launch vehicle with the Vostok spacecraft, on which a member of the first cosmonaut corps, 27-year-old Yuri Gagarin, made his legendary flight into space, opening the way for humanity to the stars. The creation of a large-scale art object "Under the Lace Sky" will emphasize the commonality of all people on Earth, their existence in a common outer space, and will also show the uniqueness and originality of each person in this world.

Each participant of the festival, having created his own lace star, will have the opportunity to contribute to the creation of the art object by taking full-time, part-time or correspondence participation in the action.

To organize events within the framework of the IV International Lace Festival "Vita Lace", an Organizing Committee (called further the Committee) is formed from the representatives of the Organizers.
